

A Trinity of Windows

AURELIA 6767D

Samuel Sebastian Wesley 1810-76

The image displays a musical score for the hymn 'A Trinity of Windows'. It consists of three systems of music, each with a treble and bass staff. The key signature is B-flat major (two flats) and the time signature is 4/4. The music is written in a style typical of 19th-century hymn tunes, featuring block chords and simple melodic lines. The first system has 8 measures, the second has 8 measures, and the third has 8 measures, ending with a double bar line.

A TRINITY OF WINDOWS adorns our eastern wall
Where stories from the Bible shine through for one and all.
O bless the artists' vision and let their talents show
The story of the Loved One; that hearts may feel aglow.

The birth of baby Jesus is shown in window one,
You'd never think the Christ Child was born to be so strong.
O give us grace to follow and strength that we may be
Disciples in His footsteps; that all the world may see.

The Knowledge of the wise men, brought them to visit Him:
They knew that in the Christ Child was one to conquer sin.
The gifts the wise men brought Him were tokens of a king,
So let us follow after, and worship to Him bring.

The circumcision window completes the one in three,
A token of His manhood, yet we know He's the King.
And so with awesome wonder we stand united now
To join Him in His victory; and this will be our vow.
